THE CHARGE OF THE WATER SKIERS A REGATTA HIGHLIGHT

As though leading a cavalry charge in some long-forgotten war, these Kelowna water skiers proved a thrilling sight at Wednesday's Regatta show. The decision to concentrate on display, rather than contest events, was borne out by the enthusiasm shown for their skill by the crowds at the water show. Left to right the girls are: Leslie Pugsley,

Shirley South, Wendy Hirtle, Chris Scora, and Alice Downs. The scene here depicts the flag fly past, part of the Kelowna Aqua Ski Club's offering for the Regatta and is described by professionals as "very tricky indeed."

Jordan, Israel May Soon Meet For Peace Talks

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Talks between Jordan and Israel are reported in prospect today as Yugoslav President Tito seeks to work out a Middle East peace formula with Egyptian President Gamal Abdel Nasser.

Jordan's former development minister, Ismail Hejazi, told a reporter for the Jerusalem Post that Jordan would announce to the coming Arab summit conference its intention of negotiating with Israel.

Asked when plans for such talks would be made public, Hejazi replied: "Within 10 days, perhaps, Allah willing."

Tito is flying to Cairo today. The Yugoslav president is reported to have worked out a plan calling for Israeli withdrawal from Arab territory it conquered in June and the guarantee of Israel's borders as they were before the war by the big powers or the United Nations Security Council.

Tito generally is regarded in Cairo as a "most acceptable peace mediator." There are abundant indications that his mediation is also favored by the Soviet Union and the United States.

Nasser told an Egyptian rally recently, that Egypt will "not slam the door to a political settlement."

Informed sources in Cairo said that while Nasser appears prepared to accept a peaceful settlement, he will spare no effort to bar Israel from scoring any gains detrimental to the Arab's dignity and security.

In Tel Aviv, Defence Minister Moshe Dayan told cheering Israelis at a political rally that Israel should not return to its 1949 armistice borders.

Jordanian officials in Amman reported the Israelis have delayed delivery of repatriation forms for Arab refugees who want to return to homes in Israeli-held western Jordan. But Israeli officials in Jerusalem said Israel has delivered 10,000 forms to the Red Cross for distribution.

The number of refugees in Jordan is estimated at 235,000. Authorities in Amman said at least 130,000 are expected to apply to return.

Nigerian Capital Bombed In Bold Secessionist Move

LAGOS (CP)—The forces of secessionist Biafra bombed the Nigerian capital Wednesday night in a bold follow-up to their lightning invasion of federal territory and capture of key areas in Nigeria's midwestern state.

Civilians scattered in panic when a Biafran Second World War B-26 bomber swooped over the capital and bombed three bustling suburbs. Several persons were reported injured, at least one critically.

Unconfirmed reports reaching here Wednesday night also said the oil centre and port of Warri, 64 miles south of Benin, also was in rebel hands.

The spread of the Nigerian rebellion to the midwest region is threatening the federal government with the loss of the rest of the country's oilfields.

Shooting was heard Wednesday in the streets of Benin, a city of 120,000 about 150 miles southeast of Lagos.

Repeated bursts of anti-aircraft gunfire shook the federal capital Wednesday night as the Biafran plane dropped two bombs on the Apapa and Surulere suburbs five miles from the city centre and a third on the Kiriiri suburb.

The boom of quick-firing anti-aircraft guns echoed across the city and the sky blazed with tracer fire as a federal Nigerian navy base at Apapa opened fire on the bomber.

The war began after Nigeria's eastern region declared itself the republic of Biafra May 30.

CONGO REPORT
BUJUMBURA, Burundi (Reuters)—Rebel white mercenaries kept complete control of the northeast Congo border town of Bukavu today, confident that ousted Congolese troops could not counter-attack.

The mercenaries, who occupied the town with several hundred former Katanga gendarmes Wednesday, said most of the Congolese soldiers fled and left their weapons behind.

Apple Crop A Big One

British Columbia Tree Fruits Ltd. estimated Wednesday in Kelowna this year's Okanagan apple crop will be the largest since 1963.

Total apple production is expected to go as high as 280,000,000 pounds, and fresh market sales of 232,000,000 pounds are hoped for, with the remainder being processed or canned.

This would be an increase of 16,000,000 pounds of apples in market sales over last year.

The apples are shipped to more than 40 countries. Dollar volume of sales is estimated at $30,000,000.

Train Crash Kills Nine

ODENSE, Denmark (CP)—An express train slammed at high speed into the rear of another near this central Danish city today and rescue officials said nine persons were killed and about 40 injured.

Six hours after the crash there were still passengers trapped inside two coaches pressed together like a giant accordion.

Rescue officials, reporting the casualties, said at least 15 persons were severely injured.

Gold Coin Clue To Lost Treasure

ST. MARY'S, England (Reuters)—A gold coin that may be a clue to a $1,000,000 ($3,000,000) treasure haul was found today on the seabed near this town on the Scilly Isles off southwest England.

The slightly bent coin was brought up by a professional diver. It appeared to be Portuguese with a Latin inscription.

The coin was dated 1706, just a year before the treasure-laden vessel Association was wrecked off the Scilly Isles.

Divers recently brought up a bronze cannon which is thought to have come from the Association.

REGATTA CHATTER

One of Canada's most distinguished soldiers and statesmen met some of the nation's finest airmen Thursday, when Lieutenant-Governor Pearkes of British Columbia mingled and chatted with pilots and crewmen of the Golden Centennaires at the Kelowna Armory.

A sidewalk cafe is something new for Kelowna. The Kiwanis Club is operating a pancake and sausage breakfast booth under the Royal Trust building, each day to Saturday. Today a couple walked in with nine children, joining office workers, visitors and Regatta officials.

The Golden Centennaires will begin their aerial display of precision flying at 6:30 p.m. today, not 8 p.m. The change is in the interest of air safety. Ticket holders to tonight's show will have their tickets honored from 6 p.m. on.

A favorite ride for kiddies is the circular slide. It's free, maybe that's why. All day and well into the night, a steady procession of youngsters streamed down the slide.

A young male pseudo-hippie was wandering around the midway Wednesday night with a small bell around his neck. So his mommy can find him if he gets lost?

Today's question following the Regatta parade Wednesday. Who were the pair in a car who tried to crash the parade? Seems they were successful, following behind the Calgary float until they were booted out.

Seen walking along the midway Wednesday night were three young girls in identical low-slung jeans, blouses and cowboy hats. A matched set of teenyboppers?

Attracting quite a crowd in the City Park Wednesday afternoon was Eddie Shack, National Hockey League player, who will spend six hours a day at the booth where people can shoot a puck and have the speed of the shot machine tested.

One of the most tiring and less glamorous jobs during Regatta is done by 15 men under the direction of Ald. L. A. N. Potterson. The men are in charge of policing in the City Park and work from 8 a.m. to 10 p.m. They direct cars to parking lots and collect tickets at the park entrance. By 2:30 p.m. Wednesday the parking lot, which holds 365 cars, was filled to capacity.

The boat launching ramp at the foot of Queensway will be closed Saturday. During this period boats can be launched from the seaplane base.

Today the Golden Centennaires pilots toured the children's ward at Kelowna General Hospital. The children were thrilled to meet the jet aces.

De Gaulle Faces Discontent And Plans Unusual Broadcast

PARIS (AP)—Faced with apparently rising discontent for his actions on both the foreign scene and at home, President de Gaulle makes an unusually timed radio and television speech tonight.

De Gaulle will talk to France in the midst of the traditional French vacation season, when thousands of persons have gone to beaches or mountainside and to other countries.

The odd timing of his address has aroused speculation that it will be of major importance.

De Gaulle's aides have indicated he will deal with France's position in the world and the situation of Frenchmen at home—broad subjects which have set off sharp controversy.

He may have a further explanation of why he openly encourages Quebec separatists during his trip to Canada late last month. His "Long live free Quebec" cry in Montreal was called unacceptable by Ottawa.

De Gaulle cut the federal capital off his itinerary and came home.

He may also develop his Middle East stand which has been against Israel and largely for the Arab states. De Gaulle has called Israel the aggressor in the June Mideast war.

Thunderboats Start Arriving

Three of the thunderboats which will compete next week for the British Columbia Cup were to arrive in Kelowna today.

Wayfare's Club Lady, Miss Laper and Chrysler Crew were in Peachland Wednesday night and are due to be displayed in the City Park during the Regatta.

The boats are among 12 to 14 unlimited hydroplanes expected to begin qualifying Wednesday at noon for the race boats Saturday.

THE BEST DUET

The duet synchronized swimming event at the Regatta was won by these two girls from the Hollyburn Country Club.

Both girls are 14. For full report on the Regatta see inside pages.

Union - Led Strike Starts Against B.C. Hospitals

British Columbia's first union-led hospital strike entered its second day today with no sign of a break. And from Victoria came a plea from doctors that emergency services will not be terminated. Stationary engineers of the International Union of Operating Engineers set up a picket line Wednesday at the Royal Columbian Hospital here, and threatened to extend the strike to six other Lower Mainland and Vancouver Island hospitals. The engineers want the boilers that provide hot water and steam, and want their monthly pay raised to $630. Royal Columbian's medical superintendent, Dr. R. G. Foulkes, said the hospital operated smoothly through the first day of the strike.

Alberta Highway Minister Gordon Taylor said Wednesday Canada should initiate discussions with the United States on paving of the Alaska Highway. A top-level conference between the two governments would "at least ease thinking whether the highway will be paved in 10 years or be given more immediate priority," the minister said.

Roy Alphonse Williams, 24, of Lytton, was killed early Wednesday when run over by an eastbound Canadian National Railways passenger train. Mr. Williams apparently had been lying between the rails prior to the mishap, police said. An inquiry will be held.

Cuban President Osvaldo Dorticos stormed into the middle of a show presentation of two alleged U.S. spies in Havana Wednesday, seized the microphone and accused American journalists of doubting the facts. The head and internal injuries and deep cuts to both legs in the Monday crash. Police said Mr. Desjardins was rounding a sharp curve on the rough Green Mountain Road, about two miles west of Penitence, when his motorcycle collided with an oncoming car.

The Department of Transport president challenged the American press to quiz President Johnson on the details of Central Intelligence Agency activities against Cuba.

A Calgary man died in Penitence hospital Wednesday, two days after his motorcycle was involved in a collision. Pat Desjardins, 26, suffered severe launched an inquiry in Trail Wednesday into the crash of a water bomber, north of Trail Tuesday, that claimed the life of Don Hill, a veteran pilot.

New Brunswick fishermen have no basis for their claim that British Columbia seafarers are ruining their fishing grounds, a Vancouver fishing company official said Wednesday. "The amount of fish we take is peanuts," said Malcolm Robertson, production manager of the Anglo British Columbia Packing Co. Ltd., which operates a reduction plant at Lower Caracat, N.B.

Officials of the Alberta and Canadian Wildlife Services said today in Edmonton a black male bear that chased two girls, killing one, Tuesday near Vernon, probably thought they were prey. Both said it was common knowledge among wildlife biologists that any predatory animal may give chase, instead of running away, if it is surprised by a strange creature. Susan Duckitt, 10, of Haney, was killed after she and Jennifer McHugh, 9, of North Vancouver apparently surprised the bear on a hill near Vernon.

The Soviet Union is testing a new parachute system in an effort to eliminate the malfunction blamed for the death April 24 of cosmonaut Vladimir M. Komarov.

A 150-foot crane toppled off the top of a 10-storey building into morning rush-hour traffic at Tampa, Fla., Wednesday, fatally injuring the operator, who rode his giant machine to the ground. Rescuers cut operator Floyd Mastersen, 28, free from the jumbled wreckage of the crane and a huge truckload of steel but he died later in hospital.

Vittorio Valtella, 84, who made the Fiat company Europe's second largest automobile producer, died early today at his villa near the Ligurian shore following a brief illness.

Premier Lynden Pindling of the Bahamas says the golden goose of gambling can keep laying its golden eggs at Freeport. "Government is not out to put Freeport out of business," Pindling said in a speech to investors. "It is not thinking of doing anything to make investments unsafe."

Gennaro J. Angulo, 47, identified in U.S. Senate committee testimony in 1963 as the New England chief of Cosa Nostra, was arrested Wednesday in Boston Wednesday on an indictment charging him with being an accessory before the act of murder and conspiracy to murder.

Only about one Frenchman in five approves of President Charles de Gaulle's declaration of support for the freedom aims of French-speaking Canadians, a public opinion poll published in Paris Wednesday night says.

S. American Revolutionaries Work Towards Final Session

HAVANA (Reuters)—Delegates to a Latin American revolutionary conference here worked through the night to prepare today's final session, already delayed by a bitter dispute over Russian policy in the Americas.

The conference is winding up with a string of appeals for armed struggle against U.S. dominance, backed by Cuban-led militant radicals.

The issue which split the 27 delegations was a Cuban-backed resolution passed Wednesday condemning socialist countries which gave credits and technical aid to "dictatorships" and "oligarchies" in the Western Hemisphere—an unmistakable reference to Russia, Poland and other Communist bloc nations which have recently signed trade and other agreements with Colombia, Brazil, Chile and other Latin American countries.

Pro-Moscow Communists did not carry out their threat to walk out if the resolution was approved. But observers believe they might quit the Organization of Latin American Solidarity when they return home.

Observers felt it virtually crystallized Moscow and Ha-

Thousands of young campers in every province lit campfires at midnight EDT Wednesday and lifted their voices in a nation-spanning chorus of praise to Canada's Centennial.

The event, planned to take place simultaneously in the country's various time zones, was the centennial project of the Canadian Camping Association.

Dr. J. H. Ebbs, a CCA official, said Wednesday more than 300,000 young people at camps associated with the CCA from Atlantic to Pacific and O Canada and Cana-da, the Centennial song.

A message was read at each campfire signifying the spiritual union of the campers with each other and with campers before them who had helped develop Canada.

RETRACE ROUTES
The CCA has also sent thousands of campers to re-trace more than 3,000 miles of canoe routes followed by early explorers and fur traders.

Barry Lowes, past president of the association, said one group met Minnesota campers Wednesday at Quetico Provincial Park, located on the Canada-U.S. boundary about 90 miles west of Fort William.

The sing-song symbolized the unity of the campers, and the fires typified their hope for the future, said Dr. Ebbs.

It's His Hobby, Walking To Expo

MONTREAL (C.P.)—Hank Gallant of Victoria arrived in Montreal Wednesday after walking 3,000 miles from his home on his way to Bonavista, Nfld., 1,800 miles away.

He left Victoria Feb. 6 with $280 and a 50-pound back labelled "No rides please." Mr. Gallant, whose hobby is marathon running, stopped in Lethbridge, Regina, Winnipeg, Sudbury and Ottawa, for a week each to earn money along the way.

Excitement The Word On Midway

By PETER KINSEY
Courier Staff Writer

Bikinis, hamburgers, screams, money jingling—that's all part of the midway atmosphere at the Regatta.

There's a wide variety of things to hear, see, and smell as you walk along.

Overriding most smells is the mouth-watering scent of hamburgers, hot dogs and chips, so indigenous to any midway. But there are also subtle undercurrents of suntan oil on hot bodies on the beach, motor oil and exhaust fumes from rides, and a gentle fragrance from the direction of the pony rides.

Midway sounds range from the gentle pad of bare feet along pavement to the strident twink, twinkle and thump, thump of an amplified rock and roll record at one of the rides.

Bells on the children's boat ride tinkle while balls thump against a backdrop with the occasional grudging "clunk" as a milk bottle bites the dust.

The crown and anchor game clicks endlessly as power boats roar along the waterfront. And over all this comes the familiar "under the G, 2; under the B, 7."

Friends wave to others as they mount a ride... this solicited feeling seems appropriate on hearing the shrieks and screams that ring out after the ride starts. But don't worry, they go back again and again to be scared.

Then there are the sights. Eyeball-searing sport shirts, compete with dusky-tanned bikini girls, particularly one in an eye-catching silk bikini.

A girl, clutching a large cup, an obvious award symbol, stares at summer hockey players who vie for the honor of having the fastest slap shot. Eddie Shook offers advice to the hopefuls.

Bus Driver Seeks Items

Police and a bus company are looking for two items dropped on Highway 97, between Oyam and Penticton, Wednesday.

The Greyhound bus driver reported the loss to the Penticton detachment, which notified the RCMP in Kelowna.

The driver said somewhere on route the luggage door of the bus came open and missing are a small white suitcase and a package addressed to the B.C. Telephone Co., Kamloops. Anyone seeing the lost items is asked to contact the police.

Rev. H. D. Garner, Arcola, Sask., told police at 10 p.m. Wednesday, someone took a $100 camera from his car while it was parked on the Capri parking lot. The car door was locked but windows were lowered slightly.

Smoke Bombs Didn't Work

The navy found out Wednesday night that its smoke bombs don't work well in fresh water. In fact, during the anti-submarine tracking demonstration at 8 p.m., not one of the smoke bombs worked when dropped by the CSF-1 Tracker of VU-33 Utility Squadron from Patricia Bay, Vancouver Island.

The aircraft started the 20-minute show by approaching the grandstand from the rear, and zooming low over the startled crowd gathered in the Aquatic. The last pass made was even more spectacular.

The sub-tracker approached the stands as it landed, low with wheels and flaps down. The aircraft will give tracking demonstrations Friday and Saturday nights.

Two Men Sent To Jail

Two men were convicted in magistrate's court today of breaking, entering and theft of a Kelowna firm in June, and both were given prison terms.

George William Burns was given two years and six months and Leo Howard Hagerly, three years, in the B.C. penitentiary. Both men had no fixed address. The court was told both had lengthy records. They were arrested June 25 when police observed the men carrying items later proved to have been taken from the R and A TV Clinic.

Three men were arrested Wednesday and charged with intoxication. James Stoppard, Jasper, Alta., and Vernon Meroniuk, no fixed address, were each fined $55. Joseph Paul Bernard was given 30 days for being intoxicated in a public place and three months for a third offence of being an interdict in possession of liquor. Sentences to run concurrent.

Michael Balleto, no fixed address, was fined $150 for causing a disturbance in the city welfare office by shouting.

Donald G. Nicholls, Port Alberni, tried unsuccessfully to defend himself on a speeding charge, but was convicted and fined $100. A police constable said he travelled at speeds up to 90 mph but failed to gain on the accused.

Ban Lifted In District

Effective immediately the suspension of campfire permits in the Kamloops forest district is lifted, the B.C. Forest Service has announced.

Cooler weather has permitted lifting of the suspension in this area only. The ban, which went into effect Aug. 4, throughout the southern half of the province, remains in effect in the Vancouver and Nelson forest districts. The continuing hot, dry weather in these two districts prohibits the lifting of the ban.

The recreational closure which went into effect, in a large area of the Nelson forest district continues.

Art Show On Friday

The Kelowna Art Exhibit Society will sponsor a sidewalk show near the Okanagan statue at the foot of Bernard Avenue Friday and Saturday. Some 60 Okanagan artists have entered their work, done on a centennial theme. During the exhibit some artists will be seen at work. The show will be up Friday from noon to 8 p.m. and Saturday from noon to 6 p.m.

Union, Employers Adamant In Current Interior Dispute

The result of the International Woodworkers of America strike vote has not changed the negotiating position of operators in the southern Interior lumber industry.

H. B. Simpson of Kelowna, chairman of the negotiating committee of the Interior Forest Labour Relations Association said: "The strike vote is not going to influence the employers' stand in any way at all. We have been motivated by the economics of the situation and that is going to guide us in our talks, not a pressure play by the union."

The wage agreement between southern Interior operators and the IWA ends Aug. 31. The IWA has offered a 20-cent hourly pay boost, while the union is holding out for 50 cents an hour.

"Operators stand in the same position as they did before the strike," Simpson said. "If the employers are not willing to meet the union's demands, the results will be the same as they were before the strike."

Sunny . . .

Sunny skies and warm temperatures are predicted today, with a few evening cloudy periods and isolated thunderstorms.

Friday should be sunny with a few cloudy periods and a few afternoon and evening thunderstorms.

Light winds are predicted, except gusty in thunderstorms. Wednesday's high and low was 89 and 54, with 84 and 57 registered on the same date a year ago.

Low tonight and high tomorrow at Penticton, Kamloops and Castlegar 55 and 90; Lytton 55 and 95; Cranbrook 50 and 85; Revelstoke 55 and 85.

1,500 Watch Water Show

An abbreviated night show Wednesday attracted more than 1,500 spectators to the Kelowna Aquatic.

The Eddie Cole troupe of professional divers, the second half of the first-night show, was delayed somewhere near the border with car trouble.

The Kelowna Aqua Ski Club stretched its show well into the evening in an effort to compensate the fans for the missing divers.

Near 9 p.m., a light was attached to the ski jump to allow the skiers to approach the jump more easily.

The ski club members went through a series of jumps, acrobatics, comedy stunts and trick skiing.

This Package Has Message

A few Victoria officials are going to receive a package in the mail from a Kelowna man, and the contents are not meant to please the recipients.

Emerson Farrend, who has $200,000 invested in a southeast lakeshore resort, is disgusted with the slime and algae growth on his beach and in the bathing area used by his guests.

In an attempt to get action on pollution control, he had bottled samples of the green, slimy water and sent them to Premier Bennett, M.L.A. for this area, to J. C. Kennan, director of the Pollution Control Board and to K. L. Harding, president of the Kelowna Chamber of Commerce.

In a letter to Mayor R. F. Parkinson, Mr. Farrend said the condition of Okanagan Lake is "appalling" and "atrocious."

He urged immediate action to rectify the problem, before Kelowna's tourist industry becomes a thing of the past.

"People by the hundreds have voiced concern and many have left in disgust after bathing in our algae-infested waters," Mr. Farrend said.

The resort owner told the mayor lakes can no longer be used as a dumping ground for effluent.

"It will cost money to redirect, but it can also be used to better use in arid hill areas," he said. "Let us not be behind the times and lose all we take pride in."

Mr. Farrend's resort is one of several on the lakeshore in the south end of the city. The city's sewage outfall runs out into the lake, two blocks from the resort.

"From the Okanagan Lake bridge and two miles south, the condition of the water is atrocious, due to the algae growth," Mr. Farrend said.

Regatta's Parade Colorful Success

By TERRY UTLEY
Courier Staff Writer

There is no age limit when it comes to enjoying a parade and this was proven Wednesday as the 61st Regatta parade rolled down Bernard Avenue.

An hour before the first entry came in sight, the best locations were staked out along the route. People in garden chairs, children on stools, towels and rugs, others on the bare concrete, lined the curb, the early birds seated, the others standing tiers deep.

The choice spots were under store awnings and from second storey office windows. Some youths climbed to office rooftops and sat with their feet hanging over the edge.

All ages were represented from grandmothers to babes-in-arms. At one point on Bernard Avenue, twin babies slept peacefully in a carriage unaware of the excitement around them.

Small children, in spite of the best efforts of officials, kept running onto the roadway and yelling "Are they coming yet?"

Finally there was the sound of a distant band and the first car came in sight.

Noticeably missing this year were the scarlet-coated Mounties who have led the parade in other years. Instead a police highway patrol car carried two RCMP officers in regular uniform.

Fathers raised small fry shoulder high as the first of the VIPs drove past. They were preceded by three army jeeps, riding abreast, and members of the British Columbia Dragons holding aloft three flags—the Maple Leaf, Red Ensign and the British Columbia flag.

Another person missing this year was Premier Bennett, Regatta Master.

Chief Norman Lindley of the Westbank Indian Band and Mrs. Lindley rode in the parade in their official robes, complete with feather headdresses.

A light touch was added by clowns of every size and shape, some on foot, on bicycles and motorized scooters. There were French policemen, sheiks, male ballet dancers and beauty queens (male) with dish mop heads.

Parades come alive with band music and high-stepping majorettes and this year's parade had its share of both. They added color too, with bright costumes.

Here and there was an unusual touch, the white plumes of the Regina Junior Lions band and the black gloves of the Vancouver Northwest Strutting Debs. The Renfrew Majorettes had two youngsters dressed as black pussycats.

The Washington State Apple Blossom Festival float from Wenatchee, with its giant apple, won the first community prize and the grand overall award for parade entries.

Rather startling, but getting the message across, was the Kelowna Volunteer Fire Brigade float with a charred outline of a house, a man in bed smoking and a coffin, parson and weeping mother.

The Associated Canadian Travellers buzzed about in motorized, imitation hydroplanes, gaining publicity for the British Columbia Cup unlimited hydroplane races next week. Also getting a plug in, was the Kelowna Curling Club, with its giant 10-foot high rock advertising the Brier in March 1968.

Getting special applause were the Victoria Chinatown Drum and Bell Corps and the French Cadets who are on an exchange training program at the Vernon army camp.

"Rev it up," youngsters called to the entries from the Kelowna Stock Car Club and the drivers readily obliged, while adults covered their ears.

One of the prettier Kelowna floats was a toyland entry by Wm. Treadgold and Sons, with a life-size Mickey and Minnie Mouse on the hood. The entry took the first commercial class prize.

Winners were: Novelty: G. J. Whitman, first; Cap's Cycle Shop, second; Howard McKinnon, third.

Service Clubs and Organizations: Kelowna Volunteer Fire Brigade; Ukrainian Youth Association; Kelowna Italian Canadian Club.

Community: Wenatchee, Penticton, Richmond.

Commercial: William Treadgold and Son, Neac Dairy, Calgary Stampede.

Best Centennial: Kelowna Teen Town.

Best overall float, grand prize, Wenatchee.

Some Thoughts on Weeds, Signs and Parking Lots

When the hospital board moved—without permission—the old buildings to the Abbott-Rose corner of its property, it was said it was a temporary measure and the buildings would be put in a reasonable shape as far as the exterior viewpoint is concerned. A quick coat of paint was given them and some patching was done here and there and, perhaps, they will not look TOO bad for the next three . . . five . . . ten years. But what the board forgot is that there are other things that give a place an untidy appearance. Such as uncut grass and weeds.

And there is certainly uncut grass and weeds growing around those not-so-attractive-anyway buildings. Grass and weeds close to the buildings which cannot be reached by a mower but stand an unsightly fringe of untidiness.

This may be a small point. It might be, that is, if it were in a different location. It so happens these buildings are across Abbott from Strathcona Park and this park in relation to its size probably has more "foreign" visitors than any other city park. The other day cars were parked solidly from Casorso Place along Abbott and down Strathcona to the lake and every car was an out-of-the-province car with one exception and that B.C. car was from Victoria.

Yet part of Kelowna's show window for these people are the unhappy buildings fringed with grass two feet high just across the street.

We boast of a neat and tidy city and are given the lie by one of our leading institutions.

And while we are on this subject was it really necessary to put up THREE and three SO big signs warning the public that the parking lot is for use of the hospital employees only.

The lot to our knowledge has not been used as yet by a single hospital employee. Wouldn't it have been a good idea to encourage the out-of-town visitors to the park to use the parking space for this year at least? At any rate it would have gotten some of the cars off the Abbott-Strathcona dangerous corner.

But we suppose no one bothered to think. So the lot remains empty as a politician's speech with its three HUGE signs saying in effect: "Stay out. Whether you do or not, this parking lot is for the sole use of hospital employees."

And it will remain empty as a bird's nest in December until that day when hospital construction actually does start.

France And Quebec

(The Montreal Star)

There are many strands in the fabric of Quebec's enthusiastic plans to welcome President de Gaulle. It is important for English-speaking Canadians to understand this, for the too common tendency is to compare it with the relative restraint in Quebec's various welcomes to Queen Elizabeth and draw unfavorable conclusions.

Consider, for instance, what would be the likely consequence were English Canada to be made up of some 5,000,000 English-speaking people set in one corner of a vast French-speaking sea. The minority would, we imagine, throw a good deal of fervor into their welcome of some important figure in a distant English-speaking society.

In such circumstances the English-speaking minority would cast off some part at least of its cultural and linguistic loneliness. It would feel itself joined to something much closer to itself than anything completely available in their daily lives. This is the situation in Quebec today.

Forget the political overtones and implications, if indeed there are any. Think instead of what it means in terms of culture, of scholarship, of technological knowledge. The Canadian English-speaking majority can draw at will upon the resources of some 270,000,000 advanced peoples in the United Kingdom, the United States, Australia and New Zealand, to say nothing of the English-speaking upper classes in India and Pakistan.

Our French-speaking minority, on the other hand, can draw readily only on the 56,000,000 people of France and Belgium. Is it any wonder that Quebec seeks arrangements with them to enrich its own culture and resources? Is it any wonder that the visit of the French president has a very special significance here? Quite apart from the ethnic fact that the ancestors of Quebecers came, almost all of them, from France itself. Deep calls to deep, a fact which those of us who have Anglo-Saxon forebears would be particularly stupid to forget.

This inter-change of ideas and culture between countries is of the first importance to any society which has progress for its goal. No matter how brilliant an individual, scientist, scholar or artist may be, he benefits from contact with and stimulation from his peers elsewhere. Behind the enthusiasm from the visit of the French head of state is the knowledge that from it may flow many benefits, both tangible and intangible, in the future. Quebec's English-speaking neighbors here in Canada will benefit also. The wider and deeper approach becomes a further small step toward recognition of the universality of man.

New Head For CBC Pondered And Decision Reported Near

OTTAWA (CP)—The government is reported close to a decision on the two new men who will head the CBC.

Some of the individuals whose names are most prominent in the speculative spectrum could be discussed as the cabinet holds a series of meetings this week to map out the autumn legislative program.

Sources say the top posts in the publicly-owned corporation could be filled from this list:

—James G. E. Steele, 47, under-secretary of state, a member of the committee under R. M. Fowler that made a study of broadcasting.

—Philippe de Gaspe Beaubien, 39, businessman and director of operations for Expo 67.

for to new legislation expected this fall suggested the CBC have a president responsible for over-all policy and a general manager to run the big organization day to day.

The salary of each likely would approximate the $40,000 annually now received by Mr. Quimet, among the highest-paid public servants in Canada.

Most observers say the presidency will be filled by a French-Canadian, the post of general manager by an English-Canadian.

But others note that as the man responsible for over-all policy, the president will be called on by the public and the government to answer for the CBC's actions. To do this he should be clearly aware of the thinking involved.

Another point made is that while Mr. Moore, who has acted, directed and produced for the CBC, Mr. Gilmore, Mr. Newman and Mr. Steele all have backgrounds that include administration and experience in or around broadcasting.

Mr. Gilmore has been acting as CBC general manager since the retirement of W. E. S. Briggs, senior vice-president, early this year. Mr. Newman won awards as a director and producer with the National Film Board and the CBC before going to Britain.

Mr. Steele, besides his work on the Fowler committee, was secretary of the treasury board before going to the secretary of state department and thus had a first-hand look at CBC spending plans.

These backgrounds are contrasted with those of the French-Canadians.

Mr. Leger holds a doctorate in literature and was a newspaper associate editor and history professor before joining the external affairs department. He served as ambassador to Mexico and Italy before his move to France.

Mr. Ryan studied at the University of Montreal's school of social service, took history at Rome's Pontifical Gregorian University and joined Le Devoir as an editorial writer before becoming publisher.

Mr. Baubien is more business-oriented. He went into sales and marketing after graduating from the University of Montreal and taking a master's degree at Harvard. He founded a cookie company which he sold before his Expo appointment.

Some observers claim the general manager's post will be the one of real power and that the president will be a sort of figurehead.

U.S. Troops Take Time Out Now For Smile At Vietnam Soldier

DA NANG (Reuters)—He is the forgotten soldier of the war, ignored, ill-kempt and ill-paid, with a lonely and dangerous job of guarding bridges, hamlets, watchtowers and outposts in South Vietnam.

He belongs to the South Vietnamese popular forces and American troops have been asked to remember him—at least with a friendly smile and a wave.

Nobody seems to notice the part-time soldier, recruited to defend his village and nearby possible targets of Viet Cong attack, because he has become almost a part of the scenery, blending into a background of rice paddies, lumbering water buffalo and plodding peasants.

Yet 837 popular force soldiers were killed by the Viet Cong in the five northern provinces last year.

A pamphlet distributed by U.S. forces shows a picture of a typical P.F. soldier, in a dusty khaki uniform, standing with his wife and family in front of his simple home.

"It does no harm to give him a friendly wave," the pamphlet suggests.

There are 150,000 popular forces soldiers throughout the country in nearly all the 234 districts.

Together with the 110,000 troops of the regional forces, which operate at the level of district towns, the popular forces account for more casualties among the Viet Cong than does the South Vietnamese army of 320,000, say military sources.

But this is done at a cost because artillery support and air strikes are not always available to beleaguered popular forces outposts.

As a result 10 P.F. soldiers are killed for every 13 Viet Cong they kill, while 35 Viet Cong are killed for 10 government troops.

The P.F. soldier earns about $15 a month and is provided with some extra food for his family. He usually farms some rice or has another job in the village.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

QUEBEC'S WISH

Sir: Ignorance about the state of affairs in Quebec prompts English Canadian newspapers to make nasty remarks about President de Gaulle's speech to Quebecers.

De Gaulle received a tremendous welcome from the Quebec people. His speech in Montreal merely did justice to their enthusiasm for self expression and destiny.

The rest of Canada fails to realize that Quebec wishes to remain French Canadian.

RICHARD KUIPERS.

STRIKE RESULTS

Sir: After reading your editorial in Aug. 2 paper, headlined "Strike Results Will Be Felt For Many Years," I feel it only proper that you, Mr. Editor and the people of Kelowna know what really settled the strike of the IBEW against the City of Kelowna.

But before I open your eyes and the eyes of the public, I can assure you that the strikers did not welcome the settlement as you state in your editorial. There were choked emotions when they voted on the settlement.

The charges that the City of Kelowna laid against the strikers for the rock-throwing incident that occurred July 10 at Highland Drive was the lever that settled the strike. I might also add that this incident was overlooked.

Mrs. Milton Applebaum of Vancouver, William Klein of Regina, and Mrs. L. J. Hubbard from Portage la Prairie.

Judges Hear Contestants' Speeches At Wednesday Morning Reception

The first official Regatta party took place Wednesday morning at Capri where a Garden Reception was held at which the nine contestants for Lady-of-the-Lake and the presidents of the sponsoring service clubs and their wives met the three judges, who will decide the fate of the candidates.

Welcoming the guests were Mrs. Roy Wignall, chairman of Regatta banquets and reception, and Mrs. R. D. Knox, chairman of the Queens Committee. Special guests attending the reception included Regatta Commodore R. L. Hantbridge, QC, Lieutenant Governor of Saskatchewan; General Regatta Chairman Murray Joyce and Mrs. Joyce, Mrs. Lawrence Preston, overall co-ordinator of Royalty and Contestants Affairs; Lady-of-the-Lake Sandi Bearisto, her Lady-in-Waiting Donna MacDougall, and their chaperone, Mrs. Sydney Cook.

The three judges this year are Mrs. L. J. Hubbard, wife of S/L J. Hubbard, public relations officer with the Golden Centennaires, who are here as special Regatta guests with their six-year-old daughter; William Klein, director of the Saskatchewan Centennial Corporation, and Mrs. Milton Applebaum of Vancouver. Mr. and Mrs. Applebaum, who were formerly the owners of the Beacon Beach Motel, now have a summer home in Kelowna.

CONTESTANTS' SPEECHES

Miss Rotary, Maria Crittenden, told of her experience this summer as a swimming instructor. She has been giving lessons at a safe beach on the westside to children from two to six years old, she said, divided into four groups, the snails, minnows, whales, and octopi. She stressed the advantages and fun of teaching very young children to swim, and just told a number of amusing stories of her adventures with the little snails.

Miss Independent Order of Foresters Donna Johnston talked about horseback riding. Obviously a keen horsewoman, Donna said unselfishness and self control are the most important requisites to being a good rider, and explained that a horse will always respond to justice and appreciation. Riding, she concluded, is not just told a number of amusing stories of her adventures with the little snails.

Miss Legion, Linda Seibel, took hairdressing as her subject and told of the course she has just completed, during which she studied hygiene and sanitary rules, learned how to take care of the many different types of hair, studied good grooming and make up, and learned how to deal with the public, among a number of other interesting things.

Miss Gyro, Myrna Kloczek, took Cats as a topic of her speech. According to Miss Gyro cats are intelligent, responsible and trainable, differing in these traits from dogs only in that cats expect tangible rewards, not just a pat on the head. Cats, she said, like to be clean and healthy and are not only affectionate but generous.

Miss Kinsmen, Barbara Newton spoke of her early school days and recounted some amusing anecdotes beginning with her first day at school. When she left elementary to enter high school, she concluded, she took with her many happy and much loved memories.

MALE BACKS WEAKER?
MADISON, Wis. (AP)—Wisconsin's industrial commissioner, Gene A. Rowland, has proposed a study of jobs women are physically able to do. "It may prove that the male back is not equipped to do the job that men have been doing. In hospitals there are few complaints from women with back trouble but a lot from males," he said.

Americas Lead By Five Points

MONTREAL (CP)—The Americas track and field contingent move in to tonight's second leg of Expo 67's Europe vs. Americas track and field match with a five-point edge, but coach Dutch Warmerdam of the Americas' squad figures his athletes will have a tough time maintaining the edge.

Warmerdam said after Wednesday night's opener he was "quite pleased" with the over-all performance of his team, but he had started to worry when his 400-metre relay team dropped the decision by disqualification to four flying Frenchmen.

The Americas wound up with 79 points to 74 for the Europeans, taking seven first in the men's events and one of the women's. The Europeans took five first places in the men's and two in the women's.

However, Warmerdam says Gerry Lindgren of the U.S. should take the 5,000-metre event against Gaston Roelants of France.

Trail Wins First Game

VICTORIA (CP)—Trail and Whalley took their openers Wednesday in the B.C. Little League baseball finals here.

Rick Babcock pitched Trail to a 18-0 victory over Vancouver Shaughnessy in the afternoon game, and Ted Springenatiek hurled Whalley to a 12-2 victory over East Vancouver Optimists in the nightcap.

The six-team finals continue until Saturday, with the tourney champion receiving a berth in the Canadian finals at Valleyfield, Que.

Babcock struck out 11 and hit a homer and a double in pacing Trail to victory. Keith Van De Keere added three hits. Vancouver 600 000—0 1 6 Trail 510 300—18 18 1 Billy Sheward, John Howell (2) and Mike McNaughton; Rickey Babcock and Bud Busto.

Whalley 215 230—13 17 1 East Van 101 000—3 3 4 Ted Springenatiek and Rod Duncan; Dave Kusik, Larry Whitehead (5) and Larry Eaton.

OUTDOORS . . .

By JIM TREADGOLD

As a service to anglers the Kelowna Daily Courier carries this fishing column by one of the district's best authorities. The column will appear every Thursday. Mr. Treadgold welcomes reports from everyone. The more co-operation, the more information can be passed on to others.

The refreshing rain last weekend was welcomed by the fishermen as it was getting too hot for both man and fish. The air chilled considerably at the upper level lakes and the nights have been cooler this week which has improved the fishing and the forest fire dangers. All campfire permits in this area have been cancelled until the fire conditions improve, and no one is allowed to build a campfire unless it is in a government campsite where proper facilities are provided. It was erroneously reported last weekend that there was a forest closure in this area and a number of fishermen cancelled their plans to go fishing. The forests have not been closed in this area, and one is free to travel the roads in the hills, but be careful with matches and cigarette butts in particular. One fire was caused in the Dee Lake area by a cigarette thrown from a car but was put out before it had spread over three feet in diameter. The cigarette ash was found in the middle of the small fire, no doubt thrown there by an unthinking person.

Bill Thompson reports fishing as quite good at Beaver Lake. It is amazing to me how well fishing has held up in our mountain lakes this season. Usually during the extreme hot weather, fishing is poor, but this hot summer has been an exception to date. On Beaver the Doc Spratley fly has been the best lure with the small flatfish in gold, silver or green the next best lure. Spinner and worms are also reliable for the trollers. Orin Lyle of Enunclaw, Wash., and Lee Oaker and party of Vancouver made nice catches a few days ago. Lorne Davies of Calgary got 10 trout in two hours on the Spratley fly. Bill said some inexperienced fishermen did not have good luck and he attributes this to not knowing how to rig up the lures for trout. Bill recommends a four pound leader for Beaver at least, six feet in length and not to use swivel snaps if using flies, and even with flatfish. Bill believes in tying the leader direct to the flatfish and not using a snap here also. Use the proper knots for nylon leaders, and if you are not familiar with fishing knots come in and ask for a free knot booklet. Using an ordinary knot in a fine leader will result in the leader cutting itself off at the knot and another lost fish. There is some accommodation and lots of boats at Beaver this week.

SOME FINE CATCHES have been made this past week in the Dee Lake area, mostly in the outlying lakes and mostly on flies and flatfish. Stan Locking and son of Kelowna landed 20 nice trout on Ruth Lake last weekend on a casted Doc Spratley fly. G. D. Fillick of Vernon had good luck on Dee Lake using the Black Gnat fly. Mr. and Mrs. Fritz and sons of Arcadia, Calif. landed 20 on First Fly Lake, 22 on Wilma and 24 on Alex Mountain Lake on the gold and fluorescent red flatfish. Mr. and Mrs. Mober, son and friend of Portland, Ore., had good fishing on Ruth, First Fly, Wilma, Min and Hidden Lakes last week taking out 144 trout taken on flies and flatfish. Maurice Melkie and party of Kelowna had good luck one afternoon last week fishing Crooked Lake in the evening, using the Grizzly King fly. There are lots of accommodation and boats at Dee Lake and they can be reached by radio phone.

Bill Creton and party from Vancouver hit Oyama Lake good late one evening last weekend. Eric Bateson, Gordon Chalmers, Walter Strlechuk had quite good fishing at Hidden Lake on Pennask Mountain last weekend, but found the weather cool at the 5,500-foot altitude and even had some hail.

HAVE HAD A FEW fair reports on brook trout fishing in the Three Forks area of Mission Creek and in the West Fork of the Kettle River on the Big White road.

The spring salmon are in the pools below Shuswap River Falls and a few are being taken. Dick Tuddenham reported one of 11 pounds taken on roe.

There will be a lot of fishing on this river over the next three weeks from Enderby to Mable Lake and on up to the falls. This season one manufacturer has brought out a new pack of salmon egg clusters, which are proving very successful in taking springers. Another good lure on these big fish is the large Number five EST spoon in nickel. These big fish take these big lures because they are angry at being disturbed, not because they are hungry as they do not feed when they are in the river. A large spinning outfit is one of the best methods of fishing for these springers in the river.

Lately I have seen a number of broken trolling and spinning reel spoils. These breakages are usually caused by a monofilament line being reeled in too fast and with too much pressure put on the line by a gang troll. Plastic spoils are more prone to this breakage than metal spoils, but I have seen a number of metal spoils with one end pushed right off the spindle by line pressure. Usually the fault here is not in the reel, but the operator not realizing what is happening. To keep away from this problem do not bring the line in as fast as possible, if you have a heavy lure. Stopping the boat when retrieving the line helps, and if you have on a gang troll, bring the rod forward and then reel up the 10 feet or so of slack created and repeat this until the lure is in. This way the line will not build up a breaking pressure on the sides of the spool.

THE GAME REGULATIONS are out and in our own Game Management Area which is now number six, which is the whole of the Okanagan watershed, the season for deer and grouse starts on Sept. 16. There will be an antlerless male deer season of three weeks and a whitetail antlerless season of seven weeks. Will try to get out a full report on the regulations next week.

On Tuesday evening Dick Tuddenham of Kelowna and son Bill took a 12 lb. lake trout in Shuswap River and after a good deal of hard fighting by both of them, the big fish was finally brought in. It weighed 12 pounds and was a nice specimen. It will be a hard one to beat in our Aug. 15th contest. Dick was using a 10 lb. Mober spinning reel which is a real nice reel and he and a large number of the Trout.

FORM OF A SYNCHRONIZED SWIMMER

Megahn McCarthy, 14, of the Hollyburn Country Club of West Vancouver won the Irene Athens Trophy Wednesday at Ogopogo Pool. The trophy is awarded to the top solo performer in senior synchronized swimming events. Miss McCarthy won the Canadian Junior Solo Championship and the figure title at Simon Fraser University in April and is also the B.C. Junior Champion. She spends her summers in Westbank as her parents own a small orchard in that vicinity.

Willows Advance To Finals With 3-1 Win Over Vernon

In the first game of the Kelowna and District Softball League semi-finals, Gerry Altwasser of Vernon beat Willows' Wally Sehn 3-1.

But in the final game when the outcome meant survival, Sehn reversed the trend and beat Altwasser 3-1 Wednesday. Willows now move into the finals beginning Monday at 7:30 p.m. at King's Stadium. It will be a best of five series.

The opposition will be decided Sunday when Royals and Rutland Rovers meet in the final game of the A series. Game time is 7:30 p.m. The teams have won one game each in the best of three series.

Sehn pitched one of his best games of the season. Not the fastest pitcher around, Sehn has lots of good breaking stuff and he used them to peak off every strike out 10 batters while walking just two.

Vernon had large problems trying to put hits together and get a few runs. But Sehn yielded a meager three hits, all well spaced.

The Willows hitters gave Sehn a working margin in the second inning and it was veteran outfielder John Weninger who supplied the punch. Weninger, enjoying a great series at bat and in the field, lofted an Altwasser pitch over the left field fence for a 1-0 lead.

Willows got another in the fourth when Ian Angus opened the inning with a line shot triple into left center field. He scored when Weninger grounded out, third to first. That turned out to be all Sehn needed.

Vernon made revolutionary gestures in the sixth inning but it was cut short quickly. Warren Gould, first batter in the inning, singled and Ike Goulter was safe on an error. Gould went to third on the play. Jackie Howard skirted out to deep right and Gould scored. Then Sehn retired the next two batters to get out of the inning with a minimum of damage.

Willows got an insurance run in the sixth but it was not required although handy to have. Garnie Howard singled, went to second on an infield out and scored on a passed ball.

The not so powerful Willows attack (four hits) handed Altwasser his second consecutive setback of the series. He pitched every inning of the round for Vernon.

Altwasser fanned four batters and walked two. Garnie Howard, Willows young shortstop, had two hits—a single and a triple. He was the only player on either team to get as many.

Kelowna Meets Penticton Today

Kelowna Labatts meet Penticton Molsons at 8:30 p.m. today at Elks' Stadium. It is the third game of the best of five Okanagan Mainline Baseball League semi-finals in which Penticton won the first two games. A loss tonight puts a night cap on baseball in Kelowna this season.

Couch Jack Burton is expected to start right hander Al Veters and Penticton may counter with fireballer Gary Fox.

In the other series, Vernon and Kamloops are tied at one game each and play tonight in Kamloops.

Canadians Share Second Place In Commonwealth Golf Matches

VICTORIA (CP)—Canada hoped to dominate the singles events in today's third round clash with Australia in the Commonwealth golf matches.

So says non-playing captain Phil Farley after his team's narrow 5-4 victory Wednesday over South Africa.

"The boys seem more competitive when they are playing individual matches than they are in the foursomes."

Britain also showed strength in the singles by overcoming a 2-1 foursome deficit in posting a 5-4 win over the Australians.

The win boosted Britain into first place in team standings with three points. Canada and South Africa share second, each with two points. New Zealand, idle in Wednesday's draw, has one point.

Australia and Britain are the defending champions in the amateur tournament, last played in 1963 at Sydney, Australia.

It took the Canadians until the final singles match Wednesday before they finally defeated the stubborn Springboks.

Also beating par, on their way to easier wins, were Gary Cowan of Kitchener, Ont., and Nick Weslock of Burlington, Ont.

Weslock was two under par when he beat Dave Symons 3 and 2. Symons was even with regulation figures.

Hugh Baiocchi and Rod Mullen gave the Springboks their singles wins when Baiocchi thumped Calgary's Doug Silverberg 6 and 4 while Mullen was trimming Vancouver's Wayne Vollmer 2 and 1.

Teen-age Rider Beats Eskimos

OTTAWA (CP)—Margene Adkins, a highly-touted 19-year-old end from Tyler, Texas, lived up to his pre-season billing Wednesday night as he led Ottawa Rough Riders to a 28-25 triumph over Edmonton Eskimos.

Adkins showed 21,803 fans that the Riders can be dangerous from any point in the field as he caught six passes for 151 yards and two touchdowns in the first game of the regular Canadian Football League season for both clubs.

The Riders, defending Eastern Football Conference champions, were weak in the tackling and blocking departments in the first half and had to hang on in the dying seconds after taking a 28-18 lead on a brief second-half scoring blitz.

Edmonton narrowed the gap to 28-25 with 35 seconds to play and grabbed the ball on a short kickoff on the Ottawa 48-yard line. But defensive halfback Don Sutherland, acquired from the Western Conference Eskimos in a trade last week, saved the day when he battled down a pass from Edmonton quarterback Frank Cosentino, intended for flanker Peter Kempf on the Ottawa 10-yard line.

Cosentino was good on his next pass attempt, but halfback Jim Thomas, who scored two of Edmonton's three touchdowns, was knocked out of bounds by linebacker Mike Blum on the Ottawa 38 as the game ended.

Ottawa quarterback Russ Jackson's passing was sharp and he clicked twice with Adkins on touchdown plays covering 48 and 41 yards and once with fullback Rick Black for five yards and to get three touchdowns in 15 minutes. Jackson also scored on a keeper play, carrying six yards around left end. All four touchdowns were converted by Mo Racine.

Jackson completed 17 of 25 passes for 298 yards in the game with one interception. But his backs managed only 88 yards on the ground, which coupled with 45 yards lost when Jackson was tackled before he could get his passes away, left Ottawa with a net rushing total of only 43 yards.

The Eskimos lost 23 yards attempting to pass and finished with a net gain of 107 yards rushing.

Blue Bombers Were Terrible But Stampeders Were Worse

WINNIPEG (CP)—Calgary Stampeders bumbled their way to a 27-16 loss Wednesday night to Winnipeg Blue Bombers. This was the appraisal of Stampeders coach Jerry Williams at the end of the Western Football Conference game.

"Let's be frank," said Williams in the dressing room. "We played a lousy football game."

He was particularly peeved at the way Stampeders contributed to their own downfall with a minus rushing output, an opening-kickoff fumble and a costly roughing penalty.

Across the field rookie head coach Joe Zaleski was delighted with his club's effort before 19,727 fans—the largest crowd ever for an opening home game.

"We picked up right where we left off in Edmonton," Bombers dumped Edmonton Eskimos 20-0. Winnipeg has sole possession of first place in the WFC, two points ahead of Calgary and Saskatchewan Roughriders. Saskatchewan gets a chance to catch up Friday night when British Columbia Lions visit Regina.

The trend of the game was apparent seconds after Winnipeg's Roger Hamelin kicked off.

Rookie Ben Woodson dropped the ball and it bounced to Morley Rolihiser of the Bombers.

Veteran quarterback Kenny Ploen threw a third-down 22-yard pass to Gordie Brown, who tumbled into the Calgary end zone to send Winnipeg ahead with less than two minutes gone in the contest.

For the next 30 minutes, a stout defence sparked by linebacker Wayne Harris kept Stampeders in contention. Then Bomber Ernie Pitts intercepted a long pass and Winnipeg was off and running for touchdowns by Dave Raimey, Ken Nielsen and Ploen.

With the outcome beyond doubt, Peter Liske threw touchdown passes to Lovell Coleman and Bob Paremore for Calgary.

Hamelin booted two converts for Bombers while Bill Van Burkleo contributed a punt single. Jim Furlong boomed two punt singles for Calgary; Larry Robinson converted two.

Liske pursued by Bomber defenders, managed to complete 11 of 27 attempts for 203 yards but had two passes intercepted and was pulled down five times for a loss of 62 yards.

Shafer Returns

VANCOUVER (CP)—British Columbia Lions of the Canadian Football League Wednesday announced outright release of Chick Graning and the reactivation of Steve Shafer.

Graning, a defensive halfback from Chattanooga, Tenn., led the Lions last year as back up quarterback to Joe Kapp. Before joining the Lions Graning had a stint with the St. Louis Cardinals of the National Football League.

Shafer, a defensive halfback, is entering his fifth season with the Lions. He joined the Lions from Utah State University. Shafer is employed by the New Westminster Parks and Recreation Board.

In making the announcement, general manager Dennis Veitch said Graning had a better training camp than Shafer but an injury has slowed him down. Last year Shafer was second in the Western Conference in interceptions with six.

Perez Finally Came Back -To Clobbering Fastballs

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

Tony Perez tore out of his slump with two home runs and two singles, driving in four runs as Cincinnati Reds ripped Houston Astros 7-3 Wednesday.

"I have been missing the pitch I generally hit best—a fastball," Perez said after helping the Reds beat the Astros. Perez took some extra batting practice against it Tuesday. The dividends came Wednesday.

His two homers helped Gary Nolan win his ninth game.

In other National League action Wednesday, New York Mets topped Atlanta Braves 5-1, St. Louis Cardinals edged Los Angeles Dodgers 3-2 in 11 innings and Chicago Cubs split a doubleheader with Pittsburgh Pirates, winning 6-0 and then losing 10-6.

San Francisco Giants game at Philadelphia was rained out. Nolan had a one-hitter until the eighth inning and survived some late-inning shakiness to beat the Astros.

The Mets bunched four runs against Atlanta in the first inning, giving Tom Seaver 22, a for third.

Wes Parker's throwing error gave the Cardinals their 11-inning victory over the Dodgers. Mike Shannon opened the 11th with a double and after walks to Roger Maris and Phil Gagliano, Ed Bressoud popped to Parker. When the first baseman's routine throw to the plate was wide, Shannon scored. Lou Brock and Bressoud homered for the Cardinals while Dick Schofield and Jim Campanis connected for the Dodgers.

Ferguson Jenkins, 23-year-old, Chatham, Ont., product, pitched a four-hitter and became the National League's first 15-game winner as the Cubs topped the Pirates in the first game.

Jenkins struck out nine and retired 16 straight batters over one stretch. He also drove in two runs with a single in Chicago's four-run sixth.

REMEMBER WHEN

Juan Rodriguez carded a 268 at Chicago three years ago today—in 1964—to win the Western open golf tournament's first prize of $11,000. His only other victory in the big league that year was the Dorado Beach tournament at San Juan, Puerto Rico, for which he Manny Sanguillen delivered a bases-loaded double that chased home three runs in the ninth inning in the Pirates to a 10-6 victory in the nightcap. Al Luplow had a three-run homer for Pittsburgh.

Polish Pair Lead

MONTREAL (CP)—A crew from Warsaw, Poland—Z. Kania and crewmember Konrad Fick—held a slight edge in the overall standings of the 10-race International Cadet Class World Sailing Championship, following completion of Wednesday's sixth and seventh races.

The Polish pair won the sixth race to stand in first place in the cumulative standings with 4½ points. Second in the sixth test were Paul Whitehead and crew J. R. Whitehead of Brookline, England. Lorne Carmichael and Chris Joyce of Deep River, Ont., were third.

PAPER SUITS FOR MEN

MONTREAL (CP)—The man in the grey flannel suit may soon be the man in grey paper. James Sterling of Sterling Paper Fashions expects to wear nothing else but suits made of Lexon, a heavy new paper, at a Moscow clothing exhibit this summer. Designed in the firm's own workrooms, the conventional-looking suit will sell for about $20.

Nothing Like The Eighth For Tacoma's Bob Raudman

By THE CANADIAN PRESS

A three-run eighth inning sparked by Bob Raudman's two-run double gave the Tacoma Cubs a 4-2 Pacific Coast League baseball victory over the Seattle Angels Wednesday night.

The Tacoma win, along with Vancouver and Spokane losses, moved the Cubs into a three-way tie for the PCL western division lead.

Vancouver was beaten by San Diego 6-3 while Spokane bowed to Portland 2-1 in a 13-inning contest.

In other games Wednesday, Indianapolis swept a doubleheader from Oklahoma City 4-0 and 1-0, Tulsa took the first half of a twin bill from Hawaii .57 and went on to win the nightcap 1-0 in 12 innings and Denver bested Phoenix 2-1.

The Cubs were down 2-1 when Bobby Gene Smith smacked a one-run pinch double to even the score. Raudman then slammed his two-run double off the rightfield fence to drive in the final two runs of the night.

The Vancouver Mounties lost their third straight to San Diego with pitcher Bill Edgerton taking his eighth loss against four wins. The Padres scored three runs in the second inning on a double by Bobby Klaus. John Tsitouris scored on Bobby Pena's sacrifice fly and Klaus came home on a wild pitch by Edgerton. Three more Padre runs in the fifth were all that was needed.

The Mounties' night was made worse when they learned midway through the game their ace pitcher Roberto Rodriguez (12-4) had been recalled by the Kansas City Athletics. Rodriguez, who reports to the American League club today, will be replaced on the Vancouver roster by right-hander Bob Taylor, 7-4 this year, with Birmingham of the Southern Association.

I have walked in summer meadow
When the sunbeams flashed and broke
And I never saw the cattle
Or the sheep and horses smoke.

But I've watched the world with wonder
When the grass with dew was wet
But I never saw a robin puffing at a cigarette.

I've fished in many a river
When the succor crop was ripe
But I never saw a catfish sucking on a briar pipe.

Man's the only living creature
That parades this vale of tears
Like a snorting, puffing engine

Puffing smoke from hose and ears.
If God ever had intended
When he first created man
That he'd smoke he would of built him

On a wider, different plan.
He'd have fixed him with a stove pipe
And a damper and a grate
And he'd have a smoke consumer

That was strictly up to date.

Six Injured In Hong Kong

HONG KONG (Reuters)—Six persons were injured by a bomb today as scattered street violence continued in this British colony despite a police crackdown on leftists.

The bomb was aimed at police trying to break up a crowd of jeering teen-agers painting slogans on the main road of Kowloon district. It fell short and landed among the crowd, injuring five women and a man.

Police fired warning shots to disperse the teen-agers after the blast.

At least 16 persons were injured Tuesday, 10 of them when police fired into a crowd of pro-Peking demonstrators stoning a streetcar in western Hong Kong.

Police today pressed a crackdown on local leftists with new raids and arrests.

They arrested three Communist newspaper men and the two co-owners of a company that prints their newspaper. Charges against the five were not announced.

British troops ringed the offices of the China Gas Co. and the Chinese Employees Association as police went in and seized posters, pamphlets and home-made weapons, including sharpened water pipes and metal bars.

Rutland Residents Flock To See Fire Hall Opened

RUTLAND—The Rutland Fire Protection District held open house on Aug. 6, in connection with the official opening ceremonies at the new Rutland Fire Hall. Master of Ceremonies was M. W. Marshall, chairman of the board of trustees of the district. Some 250 or more residents of the district gathered for the occasion, and benches were provided in front of the hall to accommodate most of them.

The proceedings opened with the singing of O Canada, followed by some words of welcome and comments by the chairman, who then introduced the board of trustees, N. C. Husch, R. C. Parkes, W. J. Whitehead, Edward Schneider, and the secretary, Robert Atkin. A brief history of the Rutland Fire Brigade was given by W. J. Husch, which told of the formation of the group in November 1949, the first chief being Tom Hughes, assistant chief R. C. Lucas, captain Percy Wolfe, lieutenant Bernard Heitzman and secretary-treasurer W. Walrod.

Other original members were L. W. Preston, Don Reynolds, John Nakonechny, C. R. Malach and W. J. Husch. The first equipment was an old sprayer borrowed from Alex Bell, which had to be towed. A self-propelled truck with sprayer was later loaned by George Day. In 1949 an old fire truck was purchased from Kelowna. This was later sold to Oyama, and a large new pumper truck was purchased in 1956, but in between time, prior to delivery, a small truck with a tank was borrowed from Kiyu Yamaoka.

In 1956 the fire protection district was formed, and buildings and equipment were financed on a tax basis, doing away with the old volunteer canvassing. Three years ago a move to build a larger fire hall was begun, the Carson property was acquired, with assistance of the Rutland Agricultural Society, and the present fine new building constructed.

Fire Chief Norton would then introduce the members of the Rutland Fire Department. Mrs. Edward Schneider, president of the ladies auxiliary to the fire department, was then introduced to the gathering. Fred Stevens, president of the Rutland Agricultural Society, was also introduced and spoke briefly. Otto Gretzinger, chief designer, Valley Drafting and Design, was the next to be presented.

Dedication of the premises then followed. Rev. Everett S. Fleming of Rutland performing the ceremony.

Hugh Fitzpatrick of Quadra Construction, the principal subcontractor having charge of the main building's construction, spoke also, giving details of some of the building's main features, also introducing other sub-contractors who had charge of various facets of the building. He then presented the keys to Mr. Marshall.

Miss McIntosh, Jeanette Stearns, then cut the ribbon, assisted by Miss Heather Marshall. Also assisting at the ceremony were the May Queen, Laura McClain, and her princesses. Mr. Marshall, the MC, then presented the ceremonial scissors to Miss McIntosh in appreciation, and then invited the public to tour the building.

REVEALING TOUR

The tour of the new firehall revealed that it was equipped with large overhead doors, both at the front and the rear of the building, providing quick exit and entry of vehicles, of which there are three, two tank trucks of which one is the largest in B.C.

The necessity for these tanks is due to the greater part of the area being without fire hydrants, only the area inside the being equipped with hydrants. Rutland Waterworks District an adjunct to the domestic water service. The north side of the building provides an upper and lower floor, the top floor being a meeting room with a kitchen, and the lower floor (designed for a dormitory) is equipped with washroom and showers.

There are also offices for the fire chief at the front of the hall, and adjoining that is an office for the secretary-treasurer. The cost of the hall, exclusive of landscaping, is in the neighborhood of $52,000.

Valley Blames Top Politicians

OTTAWA (Special)—Basic mood of people in western Canada, is in favor of new leadership of Canada's political parties at the federal level. Howard Graffey, MP for Brome-Missisquoi, reports in the latest of a nation-wide opinion sampling.

Mr. Graffey, assisted by two college students, interviewed some 1,700 people in a number of western towns and cities, including Kelowna and Vernon.

He found that most people feel the present party leaders are too old and that with such a large percentage of the population under 25, the leaders are out of touch with youthful thinking.

"One man in Kelowna listed several problems the country is facing and then said that he blamed them on the leader," Mr. Graffey said. "While others did not say it that bluntly, they implied it. Because the top men obviously take the rap, many Canadians now discredit all three present party leaders because of their close association with certain problems."

In B.C. he found support for a Pacific rim policy to integrate the economic structure and resources of the west coast and derive maximum advantage out of trade with other Pacific nations.

National unity was given great emphasis in B.C. and the largest single opinion was that Pearson was catering too much to Quebec. People in the province were overwhelmingly in favor of increased welfare measures, primarily medicare and higher pensions for the old people, Mr. Graffey reported.

Deep Split Reported Looming For Smith's Rhodesian Rule

SALISBURY (Reuters)—The threat of a deep split looms over Ian Smith's ruling Rhodesian Front because of the bid by a right-wing former South African to capture the party chairmanship.

The challenger is a former air force captain, Lt. P. J. Boshoff, 55, who came to Rhodesia in 1945 and now owns seven farms.

The present chairman, Lt. Col. W. M. Knox, a strong supporter of Smith, has already been nominated for re-election at the annual congress next month. Observers here see Boshoff's candidacy as an indirect challenge to the Rhodesian premier.

Smith is regarded as a moderate in the party and there have long been rumors of strong discontent among the Rhodesian Front's right-wing faction, now believed to be backing Boshoff.

Extremist party members are said to have disapproved strongly of the latest exchanges between Smith and the British government. They feel further negotiation on Rhodesia's independence are unnecessary and irrelevant and the break-away colony should now go it alone.

The right wingers also want a republic established along South African lines.

VANCOUVER (CP)—Bail of $10,000 was set Wednesday for Richard Vernon Bennett, 25, charged with the $3,000 robbery of a Vancouver restaurant June 12. Bennett was apprehended last Saturday in Toronto.

INCIDENCE RISES

VANCOUVER (CP)—Dr. George Motz, Vancouver's deputy health officer, reported Wednesday 64 cases of infectious hepatitis had been reported in Vancouver up to the end of July. He said the number represented an increase of 10 cases over a comparable period last year.

TRAFFICKER SENTENCED

VANCOUVER (CP)—James Donald Cripps, 34, was given a 12-year sentence Wednesday for possession of drugs for the purpose of trafficking. Police said Cripps had used a radio to keep tabs on the police who were keeping tabs on him.

DEATH FREE MONTH

VANCOUVER (CP)—July was Vancouver's first month without a traffic death in more than four years. The last month in which no one was killed on Vancouver's streets was April 1963.

PLEADS GUILTY

VANCOUVER (CP)—Lorenzo Sasseville, 42, pleaded guilty Wednesday to defrauding the City of Vancouver of $472 while collecting Social assistance. Prosecutor Marvin Storrow said Sasseville had been given the money between Sept. 30, 1964 and Sept. 30, 1965.

'COPTER CLEARS DITCHES

REGINA (CP)—The provincial agriculture department came up with a new use for helicopters last winter. A craft sprayed drainage ditches with a heat-absorbing black compound that speeded the melting of the snow, clearing the ditches for the spring runoff and avoiding flooding.

MORE HOGS AROUND

HALIFAX (CP)—The Nova Scotia agriculture department says the province's hog population is continuing to grow. There were 68,000 hogs on Nova Scotia farms March 1, 1967, compared with 64,000 on the same date 1966.
